

Privacy Policy

We, Information and Communication Technology Agency of Sri Lanka (ICTA), being the apex ICT institution of the government, built the Sri Lanka Museums app as a free application. This SERVICE is provided by the ICTA at no cost and is intended for use as is.

This privacy policy applies to information we collect via Sri Lanka Museums application about visitors to our digital channels and people who use and support our services.

This policy informs you on how we use any personal information we collect about you, your rights to access and correct the information we hold about you and how to contact us for queries or complaints about our use of your personal information

If you choose to use our Service, then you agree to the collection and use of information in relation to this policy. The Personal Information that we collect is used for providing and improving the Service. We will not use or share your information with anyone except as described in this Privacy Policy.

The terms used in this Privacy Policy have the same meanings as in our Terms and Conditions, which is accessible at Sri Lanka Museums unless otherwise defined in this Privacy Policy.

Information Collection and Use

For a better experience, while using our Service, we may require you to provide us with certain personally identifiable information. The information that we request may be retained by us and used as described in this privacy policy.

Use of Information

Personal Information we collect may include;

- GPS Coordinates (Augmented Reality)
- Social media information (only in the event that you are using social media related functions)

Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics to collect information about how our visitors use and navigate this application. We use this information to analyze usage of the application so that we can continually work to improve the application and your experience of it. The cookies collect information including, but not limited to, the number of visitors to the application, which pages they visited, whereabouts they came to the site from. This information is anonymous and cannot be used to identify you personally.

We may use your personal information to enhance the features of the application in order to fulfill our public task and to provide you a better experience with the services you have requested.

We will ensure we have a legitimate basis to use your personal information for the other purposes mentioned in this policy (usually with your consent, further to a legitimate interests assessment, or because the use of your data is necessary to comply with a legal obligation).

Sharing of Information

We may share the information we collect about you as described in this Statement or as described at the time of collection or sharing.

We will not sell your details to any third parties, nor disclose personal data to any third parties or external organizations, other than trusted data processors and service providers carrying out work on our behalf.

Service Providers

We may employ third-party companies and individuals due to the following reasons:

- To facilitate our Service;
- To provide the Service on our behalf;
- To perform Service-related services; or
- To assist us in analyzing how our Service is used.

We want to inform users of this Service that these third parties have access to your Personal Information. The reason is to perform the tasks assigned to them on our behalf. However, they are obligated not to disclose or use the information for any other purpose.

Compliance with the law

This privacy policy and the matters connected thereto shall be governed by the laws of Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka. We ensure that our activities comply with the law. Therefore we may need to share or use your personal information if we are required to do so by law (for example, in response to a warrant or court order) and we may use information from other sources for the purposes of fraud prevention, for example to comply with money laundering regulations, Right to Information Act and its regulations or to protect people's rights, property or safety.
